What do you know about the state of youth (family, health, mental health, education, juvenile system, sisterhood and community involvement)? _____

We anticipate about a 250 to 300 youth to attend. There will be breakfast, lunch and materials provided as well as some transportation. Contact us if you have any questions or comments. This summit is for youth of African Descent between the ages of 13 to 23. This summit is designed to inform our youth about the state of African American youth in education, Health Care, Mental Health, Justice System, Parenthood, Sisterhood, Relationships, Self Development and much more... But most of all, this summit is about youth changing the direction of the world by developing and implementing positive solutions and campaigns. Keynotes by:
